BOARD OF EDUCATION, DISTRICT NO. 1

We herewith submit our report upon the work of the schools of the Village Precinct of Hanover for the spring term of the year 1903-4 and the fall and winter terms of the year 1904-1905.

We have been fortunate in retaining the services of Principal Woodbury and the two regular assistants in the High School; their efficiency had been well proved before, and they have this year secured better results than ever. The College has furnished from its Graduate Department of Pedagogy, without expense to the District, three teachers for the spring term, and four for the rest of the year. All are men who have specialized throughout their college course in the lines in which they are teaching. Their work is under the constant supervision of Director F. C. Lewis of the Department of Pedagogy, in cooperation with Principal Woodbury. Their help enables the school to do work altogether in advance of that of most schools of this size.

The High School now offers a full college preparatory course, and its work is sound and progressive. The graduates of the school who entered the Freshman class of the College last year have attested the thoroughness of their training by maintaining very high rank among the graduates of the best New England schools.

By the extension of the course from four years to five the class that would have graduated last June have remained in the school, to graduate in June of this year.

The course of study of the High School has this year been revised and printed. Copies may be had by application to the Principal.

The spirit of school loyalty and ambition has been steadily increasing. The hall has been frequently used for school entertainments, the scholars have been active in raising money to provide pictures and busts for the school-rooms, and a healthy interest in school athletics has been developed.

The superior training that Miss Cowles has been giving in the department of English has led to an arrangement by which the pupils will maintain a department in the Hanover Gazette.

The school has an increasing patronage from outside the district, which adds to the income, and brings scholars who are able and in earnest. The work of the other grades has been in general steady and satisfactory. With the greatest reluctance the Board accepted in June the resignation of Miss Bickford, who had for eleven years made the Grammar School a model of orderly and efficient work. Her influence both upon the schools below and above her own has been one of the greatest factors in the development of our school system. She was succeeded by Miss Harriet A. Storrs, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College, who had taught successfully in the Norwich Schools.

Miss Rowe, who had for four years made our primary room a place of delight for the youngest children, and who had won a place in the gratitude and love of all their parents, decided to stop teaching at the close of last year. Her work was handed on to her classmate in the Johnson, Vt., Normal school, Miss Rena J. Johns. The work has gone on without a jar, and the high reputation of the school is fully maintained.

Miss Jones and Miss Applebee have carried on their work in the other grades with the same faithful and wise energy that had already placed their success beyond question.

In the material equipment of the schools the most important addition has been an iron fire escape of the best model, made easily accessible both from the third and second floors. The cost was $325.00. We can now use the third floor of the building with entire safety.
